WHY WHY THE FLAG OF PALESTINE IN 1939

- LEV FALKOVICH · PUBLISHED ON 16.11.2014 ·

UPDATED 18.11.2014

You will be surprised when you see what the flag of Palestine in 1939 is like!

Here is the French dictionary Larousse, 1939. The appendix contains all the flags of the world of that time in alphabetical order. You will note that Germany at that time is represented by the Nazi flag with the image of the swastika, which proves that we are talking about a dictionary released before 1945!

Now in alphabetical order, get to the flag of Palestine. Yeah, yeah, that's it! What does he look like? Are you surprised? Oh, did you think that Palestine was a sovereign Islamic Arab-Yekrek-Rogue State that was captured by bad Jews?

Я родилась в Чехословакии в 1935 году. Нашей семье принадлежала одна из крупнейших текстильных фабрик в Чехии. В 1940 году, когда немцы оккупировали эту территорию, они в первую очередь арестовали владельцев промышленных предприятий, и отец не стал исключением. Его отправили в Варшавское гетто. Больше мы никогда его не видели.

During the British Mandate (1920-1948), in accordance with international law, the Palestinian state, of course, existed as such. But like all its major institutions, the state was Jewish. Until the 1960's, the word "Palestine" was perceived by different peoples as something Jewish. The 4000-year-old birth of the Jewish people, the Land of Israel, the Holy Land, were all synonyms for Palestine.

As a legitimate mandated mandate holder over a mandated territory, Britain is good, whether poorly, ruled the state, partially cooperating with the Jewish Auxential Police units until the Jewish people officially regained their sovereignty in 1948, proclaiming its independence.

The country of Israel was not re-established by the United Nations, as some people claim.
