Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

THE CHRISTIAN FLAG.

Symbolic Emblem Invented by a Pious Coney Islander.

He Wants It Adopted as the Standard of Christianity, Irrespective of Nation and Creed—A Growing Movement.

Now we have the Christian flag—that is, a flag designed to be the common standard of Christians the world over, irrespective of nationality or creed. Charles C. Overton, superintendent of the Sunday school of Brighton chapel, Coney Island, is responsible for the innovation, and he is deeply interested in spreading the movement.

So greatly interested is he that he has had a large quantity of little buttons made similar to those so frequently seen during political campaigns, each containing on its surface a miniature reproduction of the flag. The Christian Flag Extension society has also been organized, for the purpose of giving the matter wide publicity.

The flag, a number of which have already been made, is symbolic. The ground is white, representing peace, purity and innocence. In one of the upper corners is a square of blue, the color of the unclouded sky, a symbol of faith and trust. In the center of the blue is a cross, the chosen symbol of Christianity, the color being red, typical of Christ's blood.

A hymn, called "The Christian Flag," has been dedicated to the movement, the words of which were written by Fanny J. Crosby, with music composed by B. Huntington Woodman. One verse is as follows:

The Christian flag! God bless it!
Now throw it to the breeze,
And may it wave triumphant
O'er land and distant seas,
Till all the wide creation
Upon its fold shall gaze,
And all the world united
Our loving Saviour praise.

Copies of the hymn have been sent to band masters all over the country, with a request that the music be arranged as a march and played upon appropriate occasions. The request has met with many favorable replies.

A circular descriptive of the movement has also been sent to the superintendents of Sunday schools, with a view to securing widespread cooperation. The owners of several large excursion steamers have ordered the Christian flag for their vessels to be flaunted to the breeze when carrying Sunday school excursions.

THE CHRISTIAN FLAG.

The idea of a Christian flag occurred to Mr. Overton on last Children's day. Each scholar was furnished wth a small American flag, and a parade was inaugurated. A few hours later a convention of liquor dealers was marched over the same ground, and by a strange coincidence each man carried an American flag of exactly the same size as those which the Sunday school children had carried.

In speaking of the occurrence Mr. Overton said he was at once struck by the thought that a distinctive emblem was needed which might be symbolic of Christianity. And in this he meant no disrespect to the American flag. It was simply that the Stars and Stripes are too far reaching.

"There can be no opposition to the assertion that nothing awakens such enthusiasm and emotion as a flag," said Mr. Overton. "An army without its colors is inconceivable; then why not equip the army of the Lord with a flag appropriate to its mission? I would suggest that upon the standard that carries the flag a crown might replace the eagle or spear, emblematic of the reward awaiting the faithful."

Legal Oath in Maryland.

A bill to change the form of the legal oath has been passed by the Maryland legislature and signed by the governor. The change made from the present practice is the doing away with the kissing of the Bible, or even placing the hand upon it. The Bible is still to be used by the proper official in the administration of the oath, but the person sworn is required simply to raise the right hand in acknowledgment of a solemn promise to tell the truth and the whole truth. The new law makes a change, also, in the words of the oath, which will now begin with the words: "In the presence of Almighty God." The final clause of the present oath: "So help me God," is stricken out.

THE GEORGIA EDITORS.

Annual Meeting Held in Newnan July 12-13th—Excursion to New York via Washington.

The annual convention of the Georgia Weekly Press Association was held at Newnan July 12 13th.

The hospitable city, so well known for its entertaining qualities, received the weekly editors and their ladies in splendid style, and a number of social functions contributed to the pleasure of the visitors while in Newnan. The ADVANCE representatives at this convention and on the trip are Miss Daisy Crisler and Ben Perry, jr.

Leaving Newnan on the 13th, the editorial party went to Atlanta where the night was spent and next morning three elegant Pullman sleepers were taken for an excursion East. Through the courtesy of Mr. S. H. Hardwick, of the Southern railway, a delightful outing has been arranged by President Coleman of the association, covering many points of interest. The itinerary carries the party by Chattanooga, Knoxville and Asheville.

Reaching Washington, the editors will spend two days in the national capital.

In New York the party will go as they please, visiting all the attractions of Gotham and the nearby resorts. There is always a lot to see in New York at any time, and the Georgia editor can see more and enjoy it better than the average individual. After spending a few days there, the party will leave New York for Norfolk, going by steamer over the Old Dominion Steamship Line. At Norfolk they will take the Southern railway direct for Atlanta, where the party will disband

As at Newnan, the editors will be received royally and a truly enjoyable time is in store for these good natured representatives of the weekly press of Georgia.

Our Junior only accompanied the party as far as Asheville, N. C., and returned home via Murphy last Monday. He will have more or less to say of the trip and of Newnan and her people in subsequent issues of the ADVANCE.

THEY WANT TO FIGHT.

Judge A. Lathem, a Cherokee Boy, is with Gen. Fitzhugh Lee at Miami, Florida.

U. S. ARMY CAMP,
Miami, Fla., July 12th.

EDITOR CHEROKEE ADVANCE:

We are still alive and in the world, or a part of it, but when we look at the map it seems we have jumped off, and when the sun is coming down at a 2:40 gait and the sand shoe-mouth deep on our two and one-half mile march to a drill ground, the dust rising and covering us as waters cover the sea,—a drill-ground covered with rocks that look more like the remains of butter milk on a glass than anything else I can cite you to,—make us almost wish we could jump off instead of remaining here.

FITZ-HUGH LEE.

This is Miami, the place I am talking about, the place where we are stopping, Mr. Flagler's town in the South, a noted winter resort with big hotels, the Royal Palm and others, and mosquitos like whippowills. We were brought here supposedly for our health, but judging from appearances it was more to clear up this waste on which we are camped, and to drop the little change that Uncle Sam gives us into Mr. Flagler's slot machine. The Royal Palm is a fine hotel with about 1200 rooms, surrounded by beautiful grounds, but if anybody asks you can tell them we are not stopping at the hotels this summer. About the only advantage we have received from the Miami district is the cool breeze that comes unreservedly from the ocean at times and blows alike on the high, the low, the shoulder-strap fellow and high private

Our Company is now recruited up to its complement of 106 officers and men, and most of the Companies in the Regiment are like ours, up to the maximum. We are now fairly well fed, our food though far from being of a kind that will give us the gout is substantial. Most of the boys are clothed, and the recruits that have been constantly coming in are being uniformed to-day. We might be better satisfied, we might be able to see more beautiful sights in and around Miami, if there were any prospects of us going to Cuba any time soon, but we have almost come to believe that we will never hear the tune a Spanish ball will play through the air, as we believe the time has past for us to help crush the misrule of Spain in the West and to fight for our country's rights and Cuban liberty, but we do not want to always camp out. We don't like the idea of being asked in after years what we did and have to answer "camped out." We want to go to the front, to do our part, to fight side by side with the fellows from the North and the East and show them that there is courage and patriotism yet in the South, that it was never crushed and that we love the stars and stripes as loyally as they do. But with the fall of Santiago, we believe that peace negotiations will commence and, as it was said of Mary and the Master, "she hath chosen a good part, she hath done what she could," it will be said of us, "they chose the good part, they did what they could," and we must be content with that, if no more.

We are proud to be in Gen. Lee's army—that is some glory and honor—and if the time ever comes when the boys now at the front can't whip the Spaniards and will let us know (Texas and General Lee) "we'll go with him, with him, all the way," we'll come as one man from the "Old Dominion" on the East to the "Golden Gates" on the West, and win for him sweet victories and weave in battle a wreath of glory for his immortal brow and crown him king of all Lee's.

Yours Respectfully,
JUDGE A. LATHEM

Hon. F. C. Tate as a Public Servant

Speaking of Congressman Tate's recent re-nomination, the Jackson Herald says:

"This is the fourth nomination Mr. Tate has received from the hands of the Democratic party of the Ninth district of Georgia. Each time the banner of Democracy has been placed in his hands he has borne it to victory, and this time will be no exception. Heretofore his normal majority has been about four thousand, but this year we are confident it will be much larger. Tate has made a splendid record since being in congress. He has been faithful in the performance of his official duties, and it would be a difficult thing to put your hand on a vote that was cast wrongly—one which did not completely coincide with promises made to his constituents. Tate votes on all questions which come before the house for a vote, and he votes right, too. He will be returned to congress this year by a handsome majority over any opponent that may be pitted against him."

$1.20 gets the ADVANCE and Atlanta Journal one year. Cash offer.

Mr. J. B. Patterson, of Cumming, was in the city Thursday en route to Washington, D. C., where he goes to accept a position secured for him by Hon. F. C. Tate in one of the departments. Mr. Patterson was elected secretrry of the congressional convention which recently met in Gainesville and is a strong friend of Congressman Tate.—Gainesville Cracker.

Primaries

Primary elections are protected by the law of the state, but they are not elections in the ordinary sense of the term. The qualification of voters is the same, and punishment for fraud in the conduct of primaries is provided for, but such primaries are conducted under such rules and regulation, with reference to managers and returns, as may be fixed by the political party in whose interest the primary is held. The members of county committee, residing in particular militia district may be designated to hold such primary and to make returns thereof, to such county committee at such time and place as may be indicated by such committe. Justices of the Peace are not necessary and primaries should always be conducted by managers who are known members of the party holding the primary.—Piedmont Republican.

Senator J. P. Brooke, of Milton county, has been nominated by the pops as a candidate for congress against Carter Tate. Brooke is a right clever sort of a stream, but he'll be dried up soon.—Jasper Herald.

The Cruel Knife!
It is absolutely useless to expect a surgical operation to cure cancer, or any other blood disease. The cruelty of such treatment is illustrated in the alarming number of deaths which result from it. The disease is in the blood, and hence can not be cut out. Nine times out of ten the surgeon's knife only hastens death.

My son had a most malignant Cancer, for which the doctors said an operation was the only hope. The operation was a severe one, as it was necessary to cut down to the jawbone and scrape it. Before a great while the Cancer returned, and began to grow rapidly. We gave him many remedies without relief, and finally, upon the advice of a friend, decided to try S. S. S. (Swift's Specific), and with the second bottle he began to improve. After twenty bottles had been taken, the Cancer disappeared entirely and he was cured. The cure was a permanent one, for he is now seventeen years old, and has never had a sign of the dreadful disease to return.

The GRAPHOPHONE

The most fascinating invention of the age. Always ready to entertain. It requires no skill to operate it and reproduce the music of bands, orchestras, vocalists or instrumental soloists. There is nothing like it for an evening's entertainment at home or in the social gathering. You can sing or talk to it and it will reproduce immediately and as often as desired, your song or words.
Other so-called talking machines reproduce only records of cut and dried subjects, specially prepared in a laboratory; but the Graphophone is not limited to such performances. On the Graphophone you can easily make and instantly reproduce records of the voice, or any sound. Thus it constantly awakens new interest and its charm is ever fresh. The reproductions are clear and brilliant.
